9. The provisions of this section relating to carrying in public higher education institutions shall not go into effect unless and until:

(1) The Republican National Committee allows under its official rules firearms to be carried inside the Republican National Convention; or

(2) If after making such official rule change, the United States Secret Service overrules their decision, the Republican National Convention Chairman Reince Priebus, together with Republican front-runner Donald J. Trump shall, in a timely manner, meet with the Secret Service at that meeting, they shall explain that having more guns equals more safety such that the convention would in fact be far safer if all attendees were allowed to carry. Being the sound and convincing argument that this is, the Secret Service will have no choice but to reverse course and support the policy."; and"; and
